US AIRWAYS EXPRESS ANNOUNCES ALL-JET SERVICE STARTING MARCH 7, 2004

Gainesville, FL – January 12, 2004 – US Airways announces this afternoon that effective March 7, 2004 all flights to and from Gainesville Regional Airport will be served with 50-seat CRJ-200 Regional Jet Aircraft.

Gainesville-Alachua County Regional Airport Authority Chair Jon Morris states that “Prices in the last two years have been very comparable to those in surrounding markets. We offer free 30 minute parking and better access from car to plane than at other airports; in short Gainesville Regional Airport is a convenient and efficient facility, in our community. Today we are proud to announce yet another reason to fly in and out of Gainesville Regional Airport.”

CEO Rick Crider states that “this is an important step in improving the choices for air travelers in North Central Florida. US Airways clearly places a high value on our market and its travelers, and is demonstrating their commitment to North Central Florida by adding daily capacity with these comfortable new regional jets, which are highly coveted by communities our size, in service to and from Gainesville Regional Airport.”

US AIRWAYS Express Flights will leave Gainesville at:

6:15 AM

2:10 PM

5:55 PM

US Airways Express Flights will arrive in Gainesville at:

12:46 PM

5:24 PM

9:28 PM

The flight time to Charlotte is about 1 hour to 1 hour and 25 minutes depending on time of day and direction of flight.
